

Laramie Comprehensible Input Workshop with Bryce Hedstrom

8:00-4:00, September 17, 2016

At the brand new Laramie High School: 1710 Boulder Drive, Laramie, WYO

Register here: <http://www.brycehedstrom.com/workshops/world-language-workshop-with-bryce-hedstrom>

Attendees will receive an electronic packet of over 50 resources to help them implement the training they receive in this workshop.

Morning Session Compelling Communication: Talking More, Interacting More 8:00-12:00

I. Teaching with Comprehensible Input

- Acquisition vs. Learning
- Input vs. Output
- Oral Language vs. Written Language
- Word Frequency Awareness & Resources
- Teaching Grammar Communicatively and Effectively

II. Meaningful Repetitions

- Engaging students and getting compelling input with Special Person interviews
- Basic Storytelling: Thumbnail Sketch and Resources for Developing Skills

Lunch on your own 12:00-1:00

Afternoon Session Because They Want to 1:00-3:30

III. Reading Because They Want to

- Developing a Compelling Reading Program
- Why Read?
- Whole Class Reading: The Backbone of the Curriculum
- Free Reading: Where Real Acquisition Comes From
- Kindergarten Reading: Every Kid's favorite Kind of Reading
- Reading Materials

IV. Behaving Because They Want to

- A New Look at Classroom Management: We're All in this Together
- Classroom Jobs: Shared Control
- Relational Management: Using Peer Pressure
- Body Language Awareness: It's the Little Things

Questions and Discussion 3:30-4:00